

WORKFORCE EDUCATION at NHTI

START YOUR CAREER IN HEALTHCARE

Become a Licensed Nursing Assistant (LNA) at NHTI in Concord, NH.

Why should I get an LNA license?

Becoming an LNA is a great way to start a career in healthcare. LNA training can prepare you for direct patient-care roles while giving you valuable experience in the healthcare environment. It can also be an excellent first step for individuals who may ultimately want to continue their education in nursing or another healthcare profession. It's also an affordable place to start your education.

Info session: Tues., Nov. 17th @ 6:30 pm
